

2017 VOLLARA INCOME DISCLOSURE
(Last Updated May 3, 2018)

Vollara has prepared this income disclosure to give you information that may help you in your decision to become a Vollara business associate. While some business associates enjoy extraordinary results, approximately 80% of our business associates sign up with Vollara simply to enjoy special product pricing and retail profits and didn't earn a commission in 2017. The average annualized income for those Vollara business associates that did receive a commission payment during 2017 ("Active Business Associates") was $4,226.78. The chart below gives further detail concerning Active Business Associates and does not include any income realized from retail profit sales.
